The peer review draft of the modeling reports was too big to e-mail, so I uploaded it to the NRRB web site (along with the charge questions, previously e-mailed to you).

Amy: I hope you don't mind this use of the NRRB web site. If you would rather I not clutter it up this way, let me know and I can use another method to get the modeling report to CSTAG.

When do you expect the CSTAG will get the peer review report and charge questions?
